New York, October 28, 2010:

SCIP Thirteenth Year Gala: An Evening with the Stars to be held on Wednesday, December 1, 2010 from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. at the W Hotel, 541 Lexington Avenue, in New York City.

The Selective Corporate Internship Program (SCIP) is pleased to recognize Ruben Muniz, Head of Business Intelligence and MIS, Provident Bank; Mark Szollar, Advertising Director-Recruitment, Diversity and Sports Marketing, The New York Times; Rondu Vincent, Director-Supplier Diversity, Pfizer; and Al Roker, Weather Anchor, NBC for their unwavering commitment and support in the shared vision of SCIP of helping to enlighten, employ, and empower many future leaders and entrepreneurs. SCIP is a 501 (c) (3) organization founded in 1997, and is the brainchild of Monica and Miguel Mancebo of McClure Human Capital Consulting Group.

These awards are given annually to individuals who have distinguished themselves and their companies by successfully demonstrating a strong commitment to the growth and development of the next generation of leaders. Their significant contributions have set them apart for excellence and recognition.

The gala event will also honor the Class of 2010 students. The program provides bright, promising New York and New Jersey high school students with corporate, mentoring and internship opportunities to gain valuable business skills. The Mancebos have made SCIP their commitment to increasing opportunities for underserved youth. Students spend the summer obtaining business skills used by successful corporate business leaders and entrepreneurs. SCIP also offers a continuum through its alumni program, which also provides leadership training, development, and internship opportunities for students throughout college and beyond.

This is the thirteenth year the internship program has been in existence and the milestone will be marked with an "Evening with the Stars" celebration and will be hosted by WNBC Channel4 New York's Lynda Baquero and Pierre Salamon of Victorinox Swiss Army.

This marquis "Evening with the Stars" gala is being sponsored by Clarins Fragrance, American Express, Pfizer, Victorinox, Aetna, Con Edison, Mitchell & Titus, The New York Times, and Ernst & Young.
